Monongahela Visited By Disastrous Fire Last Night

A disastrous fire which for a time threatened the entire town, was discovered in a four story building on Railroad street, Monongahela about 8:30 last evening. The flames were first discovered on the fourth floor and developed with such rapidity that in less than a half hour, the building was a mass of flames and nearby buildings were being threatened. The newly organized fire department at Monongahela was unable to cope with the flames and calls for assistance were sent to Donora, Charleroi and this city. The alarm was sounded here shortly before 9 o'clock and seventeen minutes afterwards the local boys with their big Seagrave truck were at the scene of the fire. The Charleroi truck came through town at breakneck speed about fifteen minutes afterwards and the laddies from the Magic City followed the locals to Monongahela in a few minutes.

The origin of the fire is not known although it is supposed it started from a spark from an engine. The building is a frame structure covered with sheeting and was formerly used as a mill. Recently, however, the fourth floor has been used as a storage for furniture and the third floor was occupied by several families. The first and second floors were occupied by W. S. Pollock, who conducted a large livery stable. At the time of the fire he had 39 head of horses stabled there and a number of vehicles. They were gotten out in safety, but a large quantity of hay and feed on the second floor was entirely destroyed.

The building was owned by H. H. Young and is a complete loss. Mr. Young estimated his loss at between $20,000 and $25,000 with very little insurance. On the east side of the building a frame dwelling belonging to Angelo Lazzari was practically destroyed, entailing a loss of approximately $2,000 with but $800 insurance. Two other buildings, the property of Ida Markell and A. Lazzari were saved by the heroic efforts of the firemen from the four towns.

The fire was practically under control at 10 o'clock, but firemen were kept on the scene during the entire night, and at an early hour this morning the smouldering flames were being extinguished.

The burned structure is located in the heart of the town and only a short distance from the Monongahela bridge. Hundreds of people gathered on the bridge to watch the fire, while the police were kept busy roping off fire districts to keep the curious out of danger. The Donora fire department with their hand equipment attached to an automobile, met with an accident at the Schoenberger mine, when the handle of their truck came off and it was necessary for the Monongahela firemen to tow their brother firemen to the scene of the conflagration.

Condition Serious

The condition of Mrs. Addison Frazier, who was so severely burned late Thursday afternoon, remains practically unchanged, and Mrs. Frazier is in a very critical condition at this writing. She was burned about the hips, arms, shoulders and head and since the tragedy she has suffered intense pain, and owing to the constitutional condition of the patient, her chances for recovery are more grave.

Mr. Frazier and two daughters, Louise and Mrs. Lethia Rankin are at the bedside and everything possible is being done to relieve the condition of the distressed wife and mother.

When the news reached the ears of the people of the town that Mrs. Frazier had met with such a calamity as befell her, the deepest sympathy went out, for the family is among the best known and most respected in the town. News of a charge for the better in Mrs. Frazier's condition is being hourly hoped for.

LATER—Mrs. Frazier died this afternoon at 1:40 o'clock.

Blacksmith Tells Story Of Shooting

Lying in his bed at his home at the corner of Schoonmaker avenue and Sixth street, with a bullet from a 22-calibre revolver in his shoulder, Samuel Radin, the Schoonmaker avenue blacksmith, who was shot by Selemus "Curley" Robinson Wednesday afternoon, attempted to explain the affair to a reporter of the Independent.

According to Mr. Radin's story, Robinson came into the shop Wednesday morning for the Ginsberg team, but was told they were being shod and he would have to return. Instead of leaving the shop, he began cursing and was forcibly ejected. He returned and keeping his hand in one pocket, in a suspicious manner, was again told to get out, but refused. and was again put out of the shop.

In a few minutes however, he returned for the third time and opening a small door, he stepped inside with one foot. Standing in the doorway, he drew a revolver and opened fire on the blacksmith. Mr. Radin was working at the time and did not notice the return of the colored man. Four shots were fired but only one took effect, entering Mr. Radin's neck and lodging in his shoulder. The wound was very painful and so far physicians have been unable to probe for the bullet.

Robinson plead guilty to the charge of felonious shooting with intent to kill, and is now lodged in the Greensburg jail to await the next term of court.

Colonials Win

The Colonial bowling team of this city, probably the only one undefeated team in the Monongahela valley, added another to their string of unbroken victories last evening when they defeated the reinforced Belle Vernon team on the Colonial Palace by a score of 1804 to 1719 pins. The local boys were in fine trim last evening and Capt. H. Jarouse led his boys to victory with a grand total of 384 pins for the three games. The score of the other members of the team are as follows: W. Allen, 334; F Cipriani, 334; A. Vavilla, 386, and V. Lauze, 356.

Great Vote Offer Closes Friday Night

Six days before the close of the great vote offer—and as each hour passes and the end approaches, speculation increases as to who will really win after all.

The candidates are all doing their level best to put their names at the head of the list for the closing count—their friends are seeking all their own acquaintances for help, and the general public is taking sides in the outcome.

Will Be an Exciting Finish

The finish of the special vote offer on Friday, Dec. 24th, promises to be the most furious of any day since the mammoth undertaking was first announced. The entire territory covered by the Daily Independent is being hastily canvassed these last few days, with the results that hundreds of new subscriptions, which have been earnestly sought throughout the contest, are being secured for the final day.

Public is Getting Busy

The interested public cannot longer resist the temptation to take a chance and help the candidate of their choice in a last final stand. The result of this sudden enthusiasm on the part of everyone is very gratifying to the candidates who really want to win and who care badly enough to faithfully guard their positions these last few days.

No Use Guessing Winners

Many are figuring over the vote list to decide in their own minds who really has the best chance to win. However the "dope" is all guess work, for no one can possibly know the strength of any candidate in question, unless the candidate might be so indiscreet as to tell some friend "in confidence."

The Great Vote Offer

The great vote offer in the Daily Independent's Automobile is hereby announced. Every candidate is anxious to know what the last offers are. Be sure to read this carefully. Between the dates of Monday, Dec. 13th and ending at 10 p. m. Christmas eve, Dec. 24th. Following is the scale of subscriptions:

Man Cremated In Fire Last Night

While working about the ruins of the big fire in Monongahela at 11 o'clock this morning the headless and limbless body of a man was found. Only the trunk was recovered, but it is thought the remains are those of Jacob Bowden, aged about 38, who slept in the carpenter shop on the third floor of the Young building. Although many persons who gathered at the scene of the fire were positive that they had seen a man appear at at the window of the burning building and cry for help, it was thought that they were mistaken.

A search this morning failed to reveal the whereabouts of Bowden, who was a well known character about the livery stable and the search was instituted. Many persons had seen Bowden about town last evening and it is thought he was drinking before he went to the carpenter shop, where he evidently fell asleep and was aroused when the flames had eaten their way through to the third floor

More Land For Mill

The question of storage room has been bothering the Pittsburgh Steel Co. at Monessen, and for some time negotiations have been on for a part of the Gibson farm above town. The deal has been closed and tracks are being laid rapidly for the work. The ground used is adjoining the John Irons farm on the lower side of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie railroad, where the old pig pens formerly stood. There will be no buildings erected but limestone, coal and cake will be piled up for future use.

Revenge Is Sweet

The local three cushion billiard team got sweet revenge on the Charleroi team last evening for the one ball defeat handed them a week ago on the local alleys Traveling over onto the enemy's territory, they handed the Magic City boys a big juicy lemon by defeating them with an eight point lead Captain Harry Lebowitz of the locals was in rare form and rolled off 27 points for the locas with a high run of 3. Gee, the other member of the Monessen team, was close behind with 23 points and a high run of 4. Urban was high man for Charleroi with 23 and a high run of 2, while his teammate Russell made 19 and a high run of 4 The game was played on the Swicky tables. The third and deciding game will be staged at the Olympic billiard room in this city in January.

Early Christmas Shopping

The ancient warning against burning the candle at both ends has been revived by State Commissioner of Health Dixon in a bulletin to women workers. It is a warning always to be kept in mind, but particularly significant at this season of the year, when thousands of women wage earners are working under extraordinary strain and pressure. Its peculiar application to women is in that a woman's nervous organization is more sensitive than that of a man, and that in the well being of a woman the future welfare of the race is involved.

Four brief rules are laid down by Dr. Dixon for the guidance of women workers during the holiday rush—eight hours sleep in fresh air, regular exercise, sensible clothing and wholesome food. To these he adds the suggestion that business women should recognize the strain which the Christmas season imposes on their vitality "and for the time being cut pleasures and devote themselves to getting sufficient rest outside of working hours to carry them through the stress of the holiday conditions."

There is a moral in Dr. Dixon's bulletin which the general public should not ignore. The extra rush of the holiday season to which he refers is felt for the most part in the retail trade. Women workers wear themselves out in the endeavor to serve the thousands of Christmas shoppers that crowd every store, and as Christmas Day draws nearer the crowds and the strain increase daily. The days immediately preceding Christmas are the days most dreaded for the woman worker.

It is rather late in the season to repeat the familiar but little heeded slogan, "Do your Christmas shopping early." But by doing its shopping as early as possible, the public will equalize the business pressure of the remaining days before Christmas and greatly promote the well-being of thousands of women workers in the stores.

The Record in Monessen is a Unique One

If the reader has a "bad back" or any kidney ills and is looking for an effective kidney remedy, better depend on the remedy endorsed by people you know. Doan's Kidney Pills have given great satisfaction in such cases. Monessen citizens testify to this. Here is a case of it:

H. R. Wilbur, 131 McKee avenue, Monessen, says: "I contracted a heavy cold which affected my kidneys. My back was sore and lame all the time and I had to have help to turn in bed. My whole body was like a board. I often had to have someone help dress me. Shooting pains darted through my body and I couldn't do my work My body became bloated. The secretions were profuse in passage and contained sediment. I had dizzy spells and hot flashes, and I was miserable in every way. I doctored for years but didn't improve. The first box of Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me and two boxes practically cured me. Now and then I take Doan's Kidney Pills as a kidney tonic and give them credit for keeping mewell."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Wilbur had. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

BETTER THAN SPANKING.

Spanking does not cure children of bedwetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers Box W. Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child—the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

Alumni Won Game

The High school basketball team played a practice game with the Alumni at the High school gymnasium last evening, and were defeated by the more experienced team by a score of 18 to 14. Hennigan starred for the Alumni, while Wild and Williams played exceptionally well for the school boys. About two hundred people witnessed the contest. The girls have organized several teams and played their first practice game Friday afternoon. Following is the lineup of the two teams last evening: Alumni: Hannigan, Bumer and Ryan, forwards; Sutman and Hutchinson, center; and Hannigan, Rosenthal, Sutman and Bumer, guards. High school, Wild and Eller, forwards; Miller, center and McQuaide, Williams Jones, Barry and Reed, guards. Buiter, Sutman and Hutchinson scored for the Alumni with Hennigan shooting 12 fouls. Miller and Wild scored for the High school with Miller getting 3 fouls and Wild 7. Coach Townsend was the referee, Dawson, timekeeper and Rose, scorer.

Luna Opening Wednesday

Owing to the failure of the electrical apparatus to arrive in time it will be impossible for the management of the Luna theatre to open this popular little picture house Monday as has been advertised, but instead the opening night has been definitely announced now for Wednesday of next week.

In order to make the opening more auspicious on account of the delay, the management has arranged for a big special program for Wednesday and the program as announced for Monday will be held over until Monday, December 27th. This will necessitate the holding over of the great serial "The Goddess," the first chapter of which will be shown on Monday, December 27th. This serial has appeared in all the large theatres of the city and the story appeared in the Pittsburgh papers. Local people are well acquainted with the story and are anxious to see the picture, which was started here some time ago but discontinued when the theatre closed down.

Christmas Trees Arrive

The real Christmas feeling was apparent yesterday for the first time when Christmas trees appeared in the stores and wholesale houses. They were late in arriving because of delay in handling of cars. Most of these trees come from Maine and the cars are shipped out prior to December 1 to avoid a special tax which is imposed during the month. The trees will sell at 90 cents, $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50 according to the size. Holly rope is selling at $1.00 a string and holly wreaths at $1.00 a dozen. No turkeys have as yet appeared in the market. One dealer predicted a price of from 32 to 35 cents dressed. One local meat market is displaying a deer in front of his shop, while a large consignment of rabbits has been secured by another market.

Donora Defeated

In a fast bowling game between the Star team of this city and the Donora team, the locals came out victorious by 23 pins. The totals follow:
